Leader: Bless YAHUAH, the Blessed One.

Cong: Blessed is YAHUAH, the Blessed One, forever and ever.

Leader: Blessed, praised, esteemed, exalted and upraised is the Name of the Sovereign Who rules over sovereigns—the Set-Apart One, Blessed is He. For He is the First and He is the Last and aside from Him there is no mighty-one. Extol Him—Who rides the highest heavens—by His Name, YAH, and exult before Him. His Name is exalted beyond every blessing and praise. Blessed be the Name of YAHUAH from this time and forever.

Blessed are You, YAHUAH, our Elohim, Sovereign of the universe, Whose word brings on evenings. You open the gates of dawn with wisdom, change the day's divisions with understanding, set the succession of seasons, and arrange stars in the sky according to Your will. You create day and night, removing light before darkness and darkness before light. You cause day to pass and bring night, and separate between day and night—YAHUAH, Master of Hosts, is Your Name. May the Living and Enduring Elohim continuously reign over us, forever and ever. Blessed are You, YAHUAH, Who brings on evenings.

SHEMA

(All) With an everlasting love have You loved the House of Yisra'el, Your nation. Torah and commands, laws and right-rulings have You taught us. Therefore, YAHUAH, our Elohim, when we lie down and when we rise up, we will discuss Your laws and we will rejoice with the words of the study of Your Torah and with Your commands forever. For they are our life and the length of our days and about them we will meditate day and night. May You not remove Your love from us forever. Blessed are You, YAHUAH, Who loves His nation Yisra'el.

Sh'ma Yisra'el: YAHUAH Eloheynu, YAHUAH Echad.

Hear O Israel: YAHUAH our Elohim, YAHUAH is One.

Blessed is the Name of His esteemed sovereignty forever and ever.

“And you shall love YAHUAH your Elohim with all your heart, and with all your being, and with all your might. And these words which I am commanding you today shall be in your heart, and you shall impress them upon your children, and shall speak of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise up, and shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. And you shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.” (Deb. 6:5-9)

“And you shall love your neighbor as yourself.” (Way. 19:18)

PRAISE & WORSHIP

(A//) May it be Your will, YAHUAH, my Elohim and the Elohim of my forefathers, that You cause Your Presence to reside among us; that You spread over us the sukkah of Your peace, and to surround us with the cloud of Your esteem, set-apart and pure, spread over our heads from above like an eagle arousing its brood; and from there cause an abundant outpouring of life for Your servants. Cleanse me thoroughly from my iniquity, and from my sin purify me. From the set-apart ones, the servants of trustworthiness, may Your ears hear abundant blessings. To the hungry and thirsty, may You give their food and their unfailing supply of water. May You endow me with the privilege to dwell and take refuge in the sheltering protection of Your wings, to take refuge from the stream of fire and the fiery rain, when You rain coals upon the wicked. May You seal the Book of Life for our benefit, and allow us the opportunity to dwell many days upon the land, the Set-Apart Land, in Your service and in Your reverence. Blessed is YAHUAH forever, so be it and so be it.

You have chosen us from all peoples; You loved us and found favor in us; You exalted us above all the tongues and You set us apart with Your commands. You drew us close, our Sovereign, to Your service and proclaimed Your great and Set-Apart Name upon us. And You gave us, YAHUAH, our Elohim, with love appointed festivals for gladness, Festivals and times for joy, this day of the Festival of Sukkot, the time of our gladness, a set-apart gathering, a memorial of the Exodus from Mitsrayim.

Our Elohim and the Elohim of our forefathers, may there rise, come, reach, be noted, be favored, be heard, be considered, and be remembered—the remembrance and consideration of ourselves; the remembrance of our forefathers; the remembrance of Messiah, son of David, Your servant; the remembrance of Yerushalayim, the City of Your set-apartness; the remembrance of Your entire people the Family of Yisra’el—before You for deliverance, for goodness, for favor, for kindness, and for compassion, for good life, and for peace on this day of the Festival of Sukkot. Remember us on it, YAHUAH, our Elohim, for goodness, consider us on it for blessing, and help us on it for good life. In the matter of salvation and compassion, pity, show us favor and compassion and help us, for our eyes are turned to You, because You are Elohim, the Sovereign Who shows favor and compassion.

Bestow upon us, O YAHUAH, our Elohim, the blessing of Your appointed festivals for life and for peace, for gladness and for joy, as You desired and promised to bless us. Set us apart with Your commands and grant us our share in Your Torah; satisfy us from Your goodness and gladden our souls with Your salvation, and purify our heart to serve You sincerely. And grant us an inheritance, O YAHUAH our Elohim—with gladness and with joy—the appointed festivals of Your set-apartness, and may Yisra’el, those who set apart Your Name, rejoice in You. Blessed are You, YAHUAH, Who sets apart Yisra’el and the festive seasons.

Service of the Set-Apart Place

Show favor, YAHUAH, our Elohim, toward Your people Yisra’el, turn to their prayer and restore the service to the Most Set-Apart Place of Your House. Speedily accept the fire-offerings of Yisra’el and their prayer with love and favor, and may the service of Your people Yisra’el always be favorable to You. May our eyes behold Your return to Tsiyon in compassion. Blessed are You, YAHUAH, Who restores His Presence to Tsiyon.

Thanksgiving

We gratefully thank You, for it is You Who are YAHUAH, our Elohim and the Elohim of our forefathers forever; our Rock, the Rock of our lives, Shield of our salvation are You from generation to generation. We shall thank You and relate Your praise—for our lives, which are committed to Your power and for our souls that are entrusted to You; for Your miracles that are with us every day; and for Your wonders and favors in every season—evening, morning, and afternoon. The Beneficent One, for Your compassions were never exhausted, and the Compassionate One, for Your kindnesses never ended—for we have always put our hope in You.

For all these, may Your Name be blessed, exalted and extolled, our Sovereign, continually forever and ever. Everything alive will gratefully acknowledge You, Selah! And praise and bless Your great Name sincerely, forever, for it is good. O Elohim of our salvation and help, Selah! The beneficent Elohim. Blessed are You, YAHUAH, Your Name is 'The Beneficent One' and to You it is fitting to give thanks.

Peace

Establish peace, goodness, blessing, life, favor, kindness, and compassion upon us and upon all Yisra'el. Bless us our Father, all of us as one, with the Light of Your countenance, for with the Light of Your countenance You gave us, YAHUAH our Elohim, our Messiah Yahushuah—the Torah of life and a love of kindness, righteousness, blessing, compassion, life, and peace. And may it be good in Your eyes to bless us and to bless all of Your people Yisra'el, in every season and in every hour with Your abundant strength and peace. Blessed are You, YAHUAH, Who blesses His people Yisra'el with peace.

(A//) May the expressions of my mouth and the thoughts of my heart find favor before You, YAHUAH, my Rock and my Redeemer.

(A//) My Elohim, guard my tongue from evil and my lips from speaking deceitfully. To those who curse me, let my soul be silent; and let my soul be like dust to everyone. Open my heart to Your Torah, then my soul will pursue Your commands. As for all those who oppose and design evil against me, speedily nullify their counsel and disrupt their design. May it be Your will, YAHUAH, my Elohim and the Elohim of my forefathers, that human jealousy may not rise up against me, nor my jealousy upon others; may I not become angry today, and may I not anger You. Rescue me from all evil inclinations, and place in my heart submissiveness and humility. O our Sovereign and our Elohim, cause Your Name to be unified in Your world; rebuild Your city, lay the foundation of Your House, perfect Your Set-Apart Place; gather in the scattered exiles, redeem Your sheep, and gladden Your congregation. Act for Your Name's sake; act for Your right hand's sake; act for Your Torah's sake; act for the sake of Your Set-Apartness. That Your beloved ones may be given rest; let Your right hand save, and respond to me.

May the expressions of my mouth and the thoughts of my heart find favor before You, YAHUAH, my Rock and my Redeemer. He Who makes peace in His heights, may He make peace upon us, and upon all Yisra'el. So be it.

HOSHANOT

Each day of Sukkot, we rejoice before Elohim with the branches as commanded in Lev/Way. 23:40. The main word in the prayer is 'Hoshia-na!' which means 'Please save!' or 'Save now!'

Prayer Before Hoshanot: (All)

Please save—for Your sake, our Elohim! Please save!

Please save—for Your sake, our Creator! Please save!

Please save—for Your sake, our Redeemer! Please save!

Please save—for Your sake, our Attender! Please save!

You have been shown it, to know that YAHUAH Himself is Elohim; there is no one beside Him.

To Him Who alone does great wonders, for His kindness is everlasting.

There is none like You among the mighty ones, O YAHUAH, and like Your works there are none.

The esteem of YAHUAH is forever, YAHUAH rejoices in His works.

Blessed be the Name of YAHUAH, now and forever!

YAHUAH our Elohim is with us as He was with our fathers—He does not leave us nor forsake us.

Say: 'Save us, O Elohim of our deliverance; and gather us together, and deliver us from the gentiles, to give thanks to Your set-apart Name; and boast in Your praise.'

YAHUAH reigns, YAHUAH has reigned, YAHUAH shall reign forever and ever.

YAHUAH gives strength to His people; YAHUAH blesses His people with peace.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be pleasing before You, O YAHUAH, my Rock and my Redeemer.

And it came to be, whenever the ark set out, that Mosheh said, 'Rise up, O YAHUAH! And let Your enemies be scattered, and let those who hate You flee before You.'

Arise, O YAHUAH, to Your place of rest, You and the ark of Your strength. Let Your priests put on righteousness, and Your kind ones shout for joy. For the sake of Your servant David, do not turn away the face of Your Anointed One.

And it shall be said in that day, 'See, this is our Elohim. We have waited for Him, and He saves us. This is YAHUAH, we have waited for Him, let us be glad and rejoice in His deliverance.'

Your reign is an everlasting reign, and Your rule is throughout all generations.

For out of Tsiyon comes forth the Torah, and the Word of YAHUAH from Yerushalayim.

(All) YAHUAH, Father of compassion, do good in Your good pleasure to Tsiyon; Build the walls of Yerushalayim. For we trust in You alone, O Sovereign, Elohim, exalted and uplifted, Master of the world.
